

Introduction of Glenn Bott

Glenn Bott likes to have fun and help others realize their awesomeness. He uses his extensive training as a Research Manager and unique life lessons learned from a Near Death Experience and full recovery from a severe brain injury to inspire others to realize they can do and create anything they want. In today's talk he'll help you realize your power, think differently, and more fully enjoy this gift of Life.

Please join me in Welcoming Glenn Bott!
